RE: CEASE AND DESIST DEMAND FOR COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

Dear Mr.Pankaj Tripathi,

This letter serves as a formal demand that you cease and desist from your unauthorized use and distribution of my copyrighted work.

I am the sole and exclusive owner of the copyright for the material identified as [Describe the copyrighted work, e.g., "the photograph of the Golden Gate Bridge currently featured on your website's homepage"]. I have registered this work with the U.S. Copyright Office under registration number [Registration Number].

It has come to my attention that you have been using this material on your website, located at [URL where the infringement is happening], without my permission or license. Your reproduction and public display of my work constitutes a direct infringement of my exclusive rights under 17 U.S.C. & 106.

Demand is hereby made that you immediately perform the following actions:

1. Immediately and permanently remove all infringing material from your website and any other platform under your control.
2. Provide written confirmation within ten (10) days of receipt of this letter that you have complied with the aforementioned demand.
3. Cease and desist from any future infringement of my copyrighted works.

Failure to comply with these demands will compel me to take further legal action to protect my rights, which may include instituting a lawsuit for copyright infringement seeking statutory damages, actual damages, and attorney's fees pursuant to 17 U.S.C. & 504 and & 505.

This letter constitutes a statement of my legal position and is not a waiver of any of my rights or remedies.

Sincerely,

Aditya Roy
